12/20/72 Any aspect of the WG story is a full-time reportorial assignment if taken seriously. If the assignment is to intelligence connections, then the assignment is more difficult and should be expected to take more time. Joel Volz of the Star-News phoned me at David Kraslow's direction. K is now an assistant mg. ed. His planned coming was aborted by severe weather and the forecast of worse. In the couple of working days since he has had another and complicated story assigned to him, which means, for all practical purposes, that for its duration he is off this one. He says his interest, including Hunt's with the Mullen agency, constinues.
